

United States Senate

WASHINGTON, DC 20510

CONTACT:

Philippe Reines, (202) 2242873

MEDIA ADVISORY

SENATORS CLINTON, BOXER, JEFFORDS, DURBIN, LEAHY and REID TO DISCUSS THE STATE OF THE ENVIRONMENT

Senator Clinton, Senator Boxer and Senator Jeffords will hold a press conference with key environmental leaders on Thursday, January 16th at 10:15 a.m. in the Mansfield Room (S-207) of the U.S. Capitol. Participants will provide an overview of the State of the Environment and call on President Bush, as part of his upcoming State of the Union message, to halt administrative rollbacks that threaten the environment and public health. Recent Administration actions include efforts to weaken the Clean Air Act resulting in increased pollution that contributes to asthma attacks, heart attacks, cardiopulmonary disease, cancer, and premature death.

WHO: Senator Hillary Rodham Clinton
Senator Barbara Boxer
Senator James Jeffords
Senator Richard Durbin
Senator Patrick Leahy
Senator Harry Reid
Bill Meadows, President, the Wilderness Society
Deb Callahan, President, League of Conservation Voters

WHAT: Press Conference to discuss the State of the Environment

WHEN: Thursday, January 16, 2003 at 10:15 a.m.

WHERE: Mansfield Room (S-207) of the U.S. Capitol

###